

How to Register for a Course and Receive Continuing Education Credit You Call the Shots – Vaccines for Children WB2363

To receive continuing education credit for a completed training course, students are required to register for the course, select the appropriate credit type, and complete the course evaluation and posttest using the Participant Services section of the Training and Continuing Education Online system.

- 1) Login to the Training and Continuing Education (TCEOnline) system at www.cdc.gov/TCEOnline.
 - a. If you do not have an account/profile, select New Participant.
 - b. If you are a returning participant, select Participant Login and insert your Login Name and Password.

- 2) Once logged on to TCEOnline, the Participant Services page will display. Select the Search and Register link. Select a search method, such as Keyword Search, and enter the course code or keyword(s) from the course title, e.g., epidemiology. Select the View button to display the results.

- 3) Click on the course name, and the course information page will display. Scroll down to Register Here. Select the type of CE that you would like to receive and then select Submit.

The course textbook, known as the Pink Book, is available to order or online at <http://www.cdc.gov/vaccines/pubs/pinkbook/default.htm>. To order the DVD, go to the Online Order Form, found at http://www2a.cdc.gov/ncfda_psf/ncfda_orderform.asp.

PREREQUISITES: Participants should have a basic educational background in science including general knowledge in the subject areas of biology, immunization and vaccine-preventable diseases.

CE Expiration Date: 3/31/2012
